Introduction

On 9 March 2001, the Promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000 ("the Act") became operative, giving effect to the section 32(2) Constitutional right of access to information.

One of the main requirements specified in the Act, is the compilation of an information manual that provides information on both the types and categories of records held by a private body.

This document serves as the PwC information manual and provides reference to the records held by PwC and the process to request access to such records.

Scope of the manual

The scope of this manual includes the PricewaterhouseCoopers South African firm, PricewaterhouseCoopers Incorporated and the following related entities in which PwC has a direct interest: PricewaterhouseCoopers Advisory Services (Pty.) Ltd. PricewaterhouseCoopers Assurance Services (Pty.) Ltd. PricewaterhouseCoopers Corporate Finance (Pty.) Ltd. PricewaterhouseCoopers Tax Services (Pty.) Ltd. Fedamore Investments (Pty.) Ltd.

Availability of the manual

A copy of this manual is available to the public for inspection on the PwC website at www.pwc.co.za or on request from the designated contact person referred to in this manual.

Section 51(1)(a)

Access requests

Section 51(1)(e)

Access Request Procedure

If it is reasonably suspected that the requester has obtained access to records through the submission of materially false or misleading information, legal proceedings may be instituted against such requester.

It is important to note that the successful completion and submission of an access request form does not automatically allow the requester access to the requested record. An application for access to a record is subject to certain limitations if the requested record falls within a certain category as specified within Part 3 Chapter 4 of the Act.

Access requests

Completion of Access Request Form

In order to facilitate a timely response to requests for access, all requesters should take note of the following when completing the Access Request Form:

- The Access Request Form must be completed.
- Proof of identity is required to authenticate the identity of the requester. Therefore in addition to the access form, requestors will be required to supply a copy of their identification document.
- Type or print in BLOCK LETTERS an answer to every question.
- If a question does not apply, state “N/A” in response to that question.
- If there is nothing to disclose in reply to a particular question state “nil” in response to that question.
- If there is insufficient space on a printed form, additional information may be provided on an additional attached folio.
- When the use of an additional folio is required, precede each answer with the applicable title.

Submission of Access Request Form

The completed Access Request Form together with a copy of the identity document must be submitted either via conventional mail, e-mail or fax and must be addressed to the contact person as indicated above. This fee is not applicable to Personal Requesters, referring to any person seeking access to records that contain their personal information. An initial, request fee of R57.00 (incl. VAT) is payable on submission.

Payment of Fees

Payment details can be obtained from the contact person as indicated above and can be made either via a direct deposit, by bank guaranteed cheque or by postal order (no credit card payments are accepted). Proof of payment must be supplied. The access fee must be paid prior to access being given to the requested record. If the request for access is successful an access fee may be required for the search, reproduction and/or preparation of the record(s) and will be calculated based on the Prescribed Fees. If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the information officer concerned must repay the deposit to the requester.

Section 51(1)(e)

Access Request Procedure

Notification

PwC will within 30 days of receipt of the request decide whether to grant or decline the request and give notice with reasons (if required) to that effect. The 30 day period within which PwC has to decide whether to grant or refuse the request, may be extended for a further period of not more than thirty days, if the request is for a large volume of information, or the request requires a search for information held at another office of PwC and the information can not reasonably be obtained within the original 30 day period. PwC will notify the requester in writing should an extension be sought.

Chapter 4

Grounds for refusal of access to records

The main grounds for refusal of a request for information are:

- Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person.
- Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the record contains:
 - Trade secrets of that party.
 - Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that party.
- Information disclosed in confidence by a third party to PwC if the disclosure could put that third party to a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition.
- Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement.
- Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property.
- Mandatory protection of records which could be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings.
- The Commercial Activities of PwC which may include:
 - Trade secrets of PwC
 - Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of PwC.
